

Hood's Is Wonderful

Mr. A. W. Cooley,
Clifford, N. D.

"At harvesting time I took a severe cold which settled in my limbs, and in a short time developed into Inflammatory Rheumatism. After spending a good sum of money for different remedies and suffering all winter, I became so crippled that I had to walk with the aid of crutches. By the kind advice of a friend I was prevailed upon to buy six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took the medicine and it has fully restored me to health and I think it saved my life. I will cheerfully answer all who may wish to correspond about my affliction or statement." A. W. COOLEY, Clifford, North Dakota

THE CRETE ASSEMBLY.

An actor of mediocre ability can take the emotional roles if he has a good voice and a trick or two of the eyes. But it takes a man with leisure intellect and a peculiar temperament to be a comedian. Mr. Chas. Underhill, who will impersonate comic characters at the Crete chautauqua in July has devoted himself entirely to the sympathetic study of the delicate, classic comedy of Shakespeare, and the homely human comedy of Charles Dickens. He is without a rival as an impersonator of the roles of Falstaff, Malvolio, Piewick and Pecksniff. The sense of comedy is not a small thing, and it needs to be cultivated. It is a matter of regret that so little is known of Shakespeare's comedies. Even Shakesperian scholars neglect them. The greater part of the cultured world has yet to discover the sunnier side of the master's genius. There will be nothing more attractive at the Chautauqua essembly than Mr. Underhill's delightful impersonations.

A FRIEND

Speaks through the Boothbay (Me.) Register of the beneficial results he has received from a regular use of Ayer's Pills. He says: "I was feeling sick and tired and my stomach seemed all out of order. I tried a number of remedies, but none seemed to give me relief until I was induced to try the old reliable Ayer's Pills. I have taken only one box, but I feel like a new man. I think they are the most pleasant and easy to take of anything I ever used, being so finely sugar-coated that even a child will take them. I urge upon all who are in need of a laxative to try Ayer's Pills. They will do good."
